

Rapid Response Fund for Movement Building

70 Grants Awarded

Total Approved Amount: $808,370

December 2016 – March 2018

Organizations	Amount
18MillionRising.org To provide digital communications expertise to grassroots partners to organize voters in support of California’s Voting for All Act (AB 918). The creative campaign will inform voters of the importance of language access at the polls.	$15,000
ACCE Institute To organize 3 non-violent direct actions to urge the County’s Sheriff’s office stop the collaboration with immigration enforcement agency to reduce the number of deportations in the County.	$10,000
Afghan Coalition To host 4 forums for the Afghan community on non-violent response to hate crimes and reporting threats of violence due to racial discrimination. Develop in-language educational materials to inform the larger community about their constitutional rights.	$7,500
Alliance of South Asians Taking Action (ASATA) To host a series of community gatherings at the Islamic Cultural and Community Center to create a safe space and a plan of action for addressing the increase in hate crimes and bullying against South Asian Communities.	$5,000
Alternatives in Action To welcome new Yemeni and other Middle Eastern families from West Oakland into the McClymonds school community through a summer workshop series featuring culturally-informed orientation activities, team building with other parents of incoming students and listening to sessions.	$14,000
API Equality – Northern California To bring together a contingent of transgender, non-conforming, and allied Asian and Pacific Islander people to the San Francisco Trans March, and follow with a training series to deepen relationships and build long-term capacity towards a proactive trans-affirming Bay Area.	$4,420
Apple of Discord Productions, LLC To humanize the men and women caught in the prison system and reframe the public perception in favor of much needed reform. A series of Bay Area youth-targeted and holistic programs and activities will focus on uplifting voices, building resiliency, and seeding hope for the young people who are our future.	$15,000

Arab Resource and Organizing Center To support the Community Defense Project that will provide legal and self-defense trainings for Bay Area Arab youth in response to threats of increased deportations and the creation of a national Muslim registry; written educational materials will be distributed in English and Arabic, and trainings will be conducted in both languages.	$15,000
Asian Americans Advancing Justice/Asian Law Caucus To support a strategic planning retreat for members of ASPIRE, the first Pan-Asian undocumented immigrant-led group in the country. The retreat is intended to create a safe space for undocumented API immigrant youth to discuss issues they will face under the new administration and to develop a short-term emergency action plan in response to the threat of a mass deportation plan.	$15,000
Asian Immigrant Women Advocates To provide urgently needed training and advocacy opportunities for underserved Nepali and Nepali-Bhutanese women, workers, and their families to defend themselves and their communities against harassment and deportation.	$15,000
Asian Prisoner Support Committee To host a Bay Area convening of formerly incarcerated Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, their families, and allies focused on the intersection of incarceration and deportation.	$10,000
Bay Resistance To support effective engagement of low-income people, communities of color, and other marginalized communities in the fight against racism and other forms of discrimination through improved communications for the Bay Resistance Network.	$15,000
Black LGBTQIA Migrant Project To engage 15-20 Bay Area Black/LGBTQIA/migrant members in a two-day multilingual Know Your Rights + Organizing Institute in Oakland to create a network of leaders equipped with the knowledge and skillsets necessary to fight against anti-immigrant, anti-Black, and anti-LGBT attacks exacerbated by the current political climate.	$10,000
California Immigrant Youth Justice Alliance To create a community-led deportation defense model that places directly impacted communities at the center of their own defense, training a network of neighborhood-led, immigration response teams in San Mateo, San Francisco and Marin Counties through community outreach, education, advocacy, and legal representation.	$10,000

Canal Alliance To educate the immigrant community of Marin County about their legal rights through the provision of 15 community education presentations. Topics will include know your rights, basic immigration law, and how to prepare in the event of a raid.	$10,000
Canal Welcome Center To convene civic, youth and faith leaders to mobilize and respond to an increase in hate incidents in Marin County and create a youth action group to advocate for a county ordinance to stop local law enforcement from collaborating with immigration enforcement officials.	$7,500
Center for Third World Organizing To coordinate a Radical Resilience weeklong retreat for movement leaders to build strategies cross sector, cultivate personal and collective practices, and to strengthen and sustain leaders for the long-term. During the retreat, leaders will collectively evaluate the current state of diverse social justice movements and engage in restorative practices that build resilience &amp; balance.	$7,500
Central American Resource Center – CARECEN To support community organizing, and advocacy campaign to secure extension of Temporary Protection Status (TPS) for more than 350,000 current beneficiaries, and 13 nations currently in the program.	$15,000
Children’s Hospital &amp; Research Center at Oakland To reduce medical costs and provide treatment for low-income immigrant communities, through training for Bay Area health professional and leaders at the Center for Community Health &amp; Engagement’s “All Are Welcome: Supporting the Health of Immigrant Children &amp; Families” event.	$7,200
City of Oakley – You, Me, We, Oakley! To host 1-2 informational sessions for youth who are eligible for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) renewals. In partnership with International Institute of the Bay Area and the City of Oakley, YMEO will host immigration “Know Your Rights” presentations to inform immigrants about their legal rights and screen DACA recipients for more permanent immigration remedies.	$7,500
Critical Resistance To support the organizing efforts of the newly established Anti-Fascist Working Group in direct actions against white supremacy and other forms of discrimination happening the week of September 23, 1017 in Berkley California.	$8,000
Dialogue for Life To raise awareness by organizing community dialogue, media campaigns and policy debates, with the goal of stopping the economic of senior eviction deaths in San Francisco.	$15,000

East Bay Center for the Blind To host four self-advocacy skills workshops for low-income blind and visually impaired individuals of color in the Bay Area. The workshops will include content on laws governing rights and benefits in various areas including civil rights, transportation, employment, SSI benefits, and disability insurance.	$15,000
East Bay Immigrant Youth Coalition To create a community-led deportation defense model that places directly impacted communities at the center of their own defense. Train a network of neighborhood-led, immigration response teams in San Mateo, San Francisco, and Marin Counties through community outreach education, advocacy, and legal representation.	$10,000
East Bay NSBE Jr. Chapter To hold a series of know your rights trainings, led by community leaders, for people of color, immigrants and undocumented people in East Contra Costa County.	$15,000
Eden United Church of Christ To develop and deliver 9 Trauma Response &amp; Resiliency Trainings for first-generation Spanish-Speaking residents in the Cherryland neighborhood of Unincorporated South Alameda County. Trainings will address guardianship process, transfer of assets, transfer of property, and other family planning services in the event of deportation.	$15,000
Ensaaf To host a series of five “Know Your Rights” seminars at Sikh places of worship (Gurdwaras) in the Bay Area. Bilingual resources and information will be distributed to over 5,000 Sikhs and South Asians.	$10,000
Equality Labs To provide digital security trainings for Muslim, Arab, South Asian, immigrant and LGBTQ serving organizations as well as religious institutions; providing individual consultations to the organizations to review their digital vulnerabilities and help them implement security plans.	$15,000
Friends of SFPD Chaplaincy To hold 3 trainings for a cohort of at least 10 African faith leaders in the Bay View to develop local best practices for responding to tensions between the community and the San Francisco Police Department.	$10,500
Impact Bay Area To hold 3 bystander intervention classes across the Bay Area to give people the tools they need to intervene on behalf of others who my experience acts of violence or hate crimes.	$5,000

Independent Living Resource Center San Francisco To ensure the voices of individuals with significant disabilities are heard, seen, and supported during the federal healthcare reform process and fight for single-payer healthcare in California. This will be accomplished through a story banking project, associated media campaign, and support of direct strategies in Sacramento and DC.	$15,000
Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity To mobilize a strong network of San Francisco congregations to be part of the sanctuary movement and coordinate 12 presentations to highlight the personal stories of those at risk of deportation.	$10,000
Islamic Networks Group To prevent and address bullying of Muslim students in the Bay Area by: 1) hosting onsite school trainings for at least 150 Muslim parents equipping them with tools and resources to prevent bullying and harassment; 2) training and certifying at least 50 Muslim students in bullying prevention; and 3) providing cultural competency seminars for school staff in 5 school districts to develop sensitivity protocols to better serve Muslim students.	$15,000
Korean Community Center for the East Bay To identify, address and raise the visibility of the urgent needs of Bay Area’s low-income Korean community. The proposed work will include Listening sessions, know your rights trainings, video series, position paper and fact sheets.	$7,500
Latina Center, Inc. To host 4 immigrations “know Your Rights” forums in Contra Costa County serving 200 immigrant families and train 25 staff and volunteers on how to respond to crisis in the event of immigrations raids.	$15,000
Marin Interfaith Council To fund "Love Lives in Marin", an initiative that responds to hate speech/acts by promoting faith-based values of inclusion, compassion, and justice through community dialogue and visibility. While we continue to fight against hate in all forms, Love Lives in Marin seeks to highlight, inspire and replicate organic acts of loving inclusivity.	$15,000
Mission Graduates To host immigration “Know Your Rights” workshops in partnership with community-based organizations and mental health providers at 14 school sites in San Francisco Unified School District including providing training and resources to teachers at 3 elementary schools in the district.	$15,000
National Lawyers Guild San Francisco Bay Area Chapter To improve the physical and digital security of movement building activist and organizations in light of becoming targeted and attacked by violent right-wing extremist.	$15,000

North Oakland Restorative Justice Council To develop a rapid response team of North Oakland residents, trained in de-escalating conflict. In the wake of community violence, responders would reach out to victims and their families to provide resources, care and healing, organize and community response, and advocate for victims.	$15,000
Nuestra Casa de East Palo Alto To conduct 60 educational sessions for 600 immigrant residents in San Mateo County. The sessions consist of immigration “Know Your Rights” presentations, mental health awareness, and family preparedness in case of deportation. Sessions will be led by Community Promotors.	$15,000
Oakland Peace Center To engage nonactivists in urgent anti-displacement campaigns in Oakland through the arts, while simultaneously providing healing space to people traumatized by the displacement crisis.	$15,000
Oakland Unified School District To organize a convening by Oakland educators to confront escalating anti-immigrant and anti-Muslim rhetoric, racially motivated violence, and imminent threats to safety and unity in the district.	$4,250
Oakland Unified School District To further create sanctuary in the Oakland school community through a Dream, Resist, and Educate event series that aims to disseminate timely and relevant resources directly to educators and families, and create safe spaces for dialogue, intergenerational healing, and solidarity building.	$10,000
One East Palo Alto To coordinate a “Know Your Rights” campaign focused on Pacific Islanders (PI) in East Palo Alto. The campaign will include a convening to increase PI residents awareness of their constitutional rights and liberties and follow-up sessions with attendees.	$15,000
Pangea Legal Services To collaborate in a community-led Migra Watch that confronts U.S. Department of Homeland Security Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) raids and empowers immigrant families to respond effectively and access legal and defense resources.	$15,000
Partnerships for Trauma Recovery To address the post-election rise in hate incidences against refugees, asylum seekers, and unaccompanied children in the Bay Area through post-traumatic healing and resiliency groups; sessions will be co-facilitated by trained community leaders who play a critical role as health interpreters, all former refugees and asylum seekers.	$14,000

Puente de la Costa Sur To provide substantive legal information and support to mostly undocumented, monolingual Spanish speaking Latino farm and nursery workers in the south coast region of San Mateo County. The proposed work will include “Know Your Rights” and citizenship campaigns.	$15,000
Root &amp; Rebound To serve individuals and families at the nexus of the criminal justice and immigration system with legal resources and trainings. In collaboration with the Immigrant Legal Resource Center develop training curriculum, “Know Your Rights” fact sheets, and host a Bay Area family day.	$15,000
RYSE Youth Center To launch a 100-day “Love and Rage in Action” series of workshops for youth and young adults to learn about immigration “Know Your Rights,” self-defense, cultural resistance and deportation defense trainings.	$15,000
San Francisco Progressive Media Center To create a coordinated media strategy and organize public dialogue in response to the threat of hateful ideology and in the Bay Area. This effort will include coverage of community solutions.	$12,000
Sikh Family Center To develop immigration “Know Your Rights” written handouts and videos tailored to inform the Sikh community; written materials will be translated in English and Punjabi, and leaders will with the helpline.	$10,000
Social Justice Collaborative To create and distribute a series of short “Know Your Rights” videos for immigrant communities in English, Spanish and Cantonese on topics such as immigrant rights, and DACA	$10,000
South of Market Community Action Network (SOMCAN) To inform Filipino immigrants about their legal rights by conducting immigration “Know Your Rights” workshop in Tagalog in the Tenderloin and Excelsior neighborhoods in San Francisco. Workshops will be help twice a month for the next 6 months and will be led by trained leaders in at risk of deportation.	$7,500
Spanish Speaking Citizens’ Foundation To facilitate 12 immigrations “Know Your Rights workshops” in the next 6 months to respond to the increase demand for legal information and services. Educational materials will be translated in Spanish.	$10,000

Spark*SF Public Schools To launch a rapid response outreach and education initiative in the San Francisco Unified School District to conduct 16 workshops to inform parents, students, and school administrators about the district’s emergency protocols for interactions with immigration agents and the police. Workshops will also provide “Know Your Rights” information and guidance on how to prepare in case of deportation.	$15,000
Spearitwurx Foundations To host and coordinate the Powerful Parent Conference that will galvanize the Oakland community by engaging parents and youth of color in developing tools, sharing resources, and building authentic connections that build resiliency, conjure safety, and demand self-sustainability and self-determination.	$10,000
Tennyson High School To use theatre as a strategy to educate and engage immigrant communities in Hayward. Up to 10 youth and adults will receive a stipend and training to perform bilingual “Know Your Rights” theatre workshops in Hayward.	$10,500
The African Advocacy Network To conduct immigration “Know Your Rights” presentations in French, Haitian Creole, Amharic, and Tigrina languages and inform African immigrants about their legal right; to engage participants in volunteer opportunities to support their diverse language capacity and referral program.	$10,000
The Artisan Hub To expand a coalition of artists in the Bay Area to advocate for safety regulations and develop trainings for artist to understand the risks associated with producing are and living in an art community.	$7,500
The Black Land and Liberation Initiative To host a two-day training organized by black grassroots leaders for 50 black Bay Area activists. The trainings will prepare participants to engage in non-violent direct action.	$15,000
The House of Malico To host a strategic planning and healing retreat for Black, Brown, and Queer activists and artists who have been on the frontlines of local movement building efforts including Black Lives Matter, anti-deportation organizing, and anti-white supremacy work.	$15,000
Trabajo Cultural Caminante To train Spanish speaking community leaders to conduct immigration “Know Your Rights” presentations across 5 Bay Area counties. Trainers will use popular education an artistic cultural art methods to conduct 4 community trainings per county.	$13,000

Transgender Law Center	$10,000
To conduct 5 immigration “Know Your Rights” presentations and legal clinics for transgender and gender nonconforming immigrants in the Bay Area and to increase capacity to sustain its immigration legal helpline.
UC Berkeley Undocumented Students Program (UCB USP)	$15,000
To conduct two immigration legal clinics serving 80 students seeking to apply for emergency advance parole and renewals for the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program. In addition, the program will create an expanded legal safety net by establishing a secure, rapid text alert system for use in the event of an immigration raid.
West Marin Community Services	$5,000
Conduct at least two immigration “Know Your Rights” presentations and organize a day of action on January 20; the day of action titled “Our Community Standing Together” is a collaborative effort to inform the immigrant community about their rights and strategize a local comprehensive plan in the event of mass deportation.
Windcall Institute	$15,000
Conduct 4 trainings for 115 organizations to support organizers’ long-term endurance by healing trauma, develop spaciousness for visioning, strengthen individual and organizational practices to lead with purpose for sustainable systems change.
Women’s Division Christian Service Gum Moon Residence Hall	$5,000
To host seven “Know Your Rights” workshops for Asian immigrants in San Francisco’s Chinatown, Sunset, Richmond, and Western Addition neighborhoods.
Wu Yee Children’s Services	$8,000
To host early care and educate participatory advocacy workshops and organize a day of action for early childhood providers, teachers, and families to participate in statewide advocacy in response to Governor Brown’s 2017-18 proposed budget.
Young Women’s Freedom Center	$5,000
To hold “Sister Warriors”, a Bay Area convening bringing together at least 100 juvenile justice systems involved cis and trans women and girls to lift up their voices and launch campaign for their rights.
Zawaya	$10,000
To build alliances between people of color, immigrants, Arabs, Muslims, Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender and Queer communities and inspire solidarity through art. Zawaya will product two free two-hour concerts by the end of September 2017, in collaboration with groups of Blacks, Latinos, Asians, and the Arab, Middle Eastern, Muslim and South Asian community.
TOTAL TO DATE: $808,370.00	